

Maria Guida, president and founder of Successful Speaker, Inc., has improved performance at some of the world's premier organizations, including JPMorgan Chase, NYSE Euronext, Johnson & Johnson, and American Express.

As a performance strategist/coach at Fortune 500 companies, corporate/TV spokesperson, Broadway actor, and professor at NYU, Maria helps executives and sales teams in all industries speak with poise, passion, and persuasive power to enhance credibility and increase profits.

A popular keynote speaker, Maria has spent over five thousand hours in front of TV cameras and live audiences (acting, speaking, coaching, and selling), and she has worked on stage with many respected artists, including James Earl Jones and Kevin Kline.