The Society for Human Resource Management – Long Island Chapter, Inc. is the local chapter of the national organization for human resource professionals which represents a global membership of more than 300,000. SHRM has members in 165 countries including Canada, China, United Kingdom, Australia, Bermuda, Japan, Singapore, Trinidad, Bahamas and Germany. SHRM-Long Island has more than 1,300 members and is comprised of all levels of HR practitioners, representing the complete spectrum and breadth of every type of industry on Long Island who have an interest in acquiring knowledge of the most recent and innovative developments in the HR arena. SHRM-LI is a non-profit organization.

The Society for Human Resource Management provides its membership with a forum for Human Resource professionals to exchange ideas, increase their knowledge, and work together for the betterment of the profession. SHRM-LI:

In this role, you will educate, promote, and represent the interests of the SHRM Foundation and its activities to the chapter membership.

Specifically, you will:

- Educate the chapter regarding the purpose and ongoing activities of the SHRM Foundation including the Foundation's newest education resources, the status of the annual campaign and upcoming deadlines and events.
- Encourage the chapter membership to contribute financially to the SHRM Foundation as a show of support for the human resources profession.
- Encourage the chapter membership to support an annual chapter contribution to the SHRM Foundation by the chapter.
- Participate in the SHRM Foundation Core Leadership Area webinars.
- Participate in the development and implementation of short-term and long-term strategic planning for the chapter.
- Represent the chapter in the human resources community.
- Attend all monthly membership and board of director's meetings.
- Upon completion of the position's term, assist the incoming SHRM Foundation Director to assure a smooth transition of responsibilities and continuity of knowledge and resources.
